

JUNIOR COLLEGE ADDITIONAL LEARNING SUPPORT

POLICY STATEMENT

The Junior Colleges have a commitment to provide all students with fair and equal opportunities to support their educational aspirations. The EKC Groups additional learning support policy conforms to the expectations of the Children and Families Act 2014 and SEND Code of Practice.

For all policy and procedural information regarding additional learning support for students in the Junior College, please refer to the EKC Group Additional Learning Support Policy. With regards to procedure and process, all Junior College staff will follow the same extensive procedural documentation as the wider EKC group staff.

Details of related college policies and the definition of SEN and Disability are on page 6 of the policy. The college ethos is to promote student independence in all aspects of learning by supporting students and parents/carers to take responsibility for using the additional resources available.
